

OITDA/TP 01/BW (2016 Ed. 4)

Optical fiber distribution system for detached houses in FTTH

Summary

In terms of a light wiring system to use FTTH service in a door-built house or a single apartment complex, the laying of the optical cable using the quartz-based optical fiber, the connection, the setting of those constitution articles, maintenance, management, an examination, a performance standard and indication are described.