

OITDA/TP 18/AD (2014 Ed. 1)

Fiber optic active components and devices—Test and measurement procedures—
Wavelength tunable laser diode module for Dense WDM transmission

Summary

Optical Active Device Standardization Committee of OITDA carried out a questionnaire survey on the demand for new standards regarding emerging fiber optic active devices and components. Based on the survey, this technical paper (TP) covers test and measurement procedures for wavelength tunable laser diode modules with fiber pigtail with and/or without internal control circuits for Dense WDM transmission systems.